Appendix 1 - Post Results (Deadlines Apply – See JCQ Post Results Booklet)

- Candidates will be made aware of ‘access to scripts’ and ‘post results enquiries and appeals services’ BEFORE requests for these are submitted to awarding bodies. Centre must obtain written candidate consent for clerical checks and reviews of marking before an application is made, as with these services candidates’ marks and subject grades may be lowered. Failure to do so will be considered centre malpractice. Centre must meet awarding bodies deadlines for post results services. Candidates’ consent must also be agreed for Access to Scripts (ATS) and will have option to choose if their exam scripts remains anonymous for classroom teaching and learning
- Clerical Re-Check (Service 1) A Clerical Re-Check is a re-check of all clerical procedures leading to the issue of a result; it is only available for objective tests (multiple choice tests) (see JCQ Post Results Booklet) Checks include: that all parts of scripts were marked; the totalling of marks and recording of marks. written consent of candidates must be obtained (consent via email is acceptable). (Deadline for completion is 10 days after awarding bodies receive request).
- Review of Marking/Results (ROR) (Service 2) Review of Marking (ROR) requests may be put forward by centre staff or candidates to Head of Centre if they have reasonable grounds for believing there is a marking error. If a result is queried, teaching staff and Head of Centre will investigate the feasibility of asking for a review of marking/results at the centre’s expense and the candidate will be asked to sign a form to agree understanding that marks may be lowered, remain the same as well as being raised (as JCQs rulings). This is NOT a re-marking of the candidate’s original script: this is a Post Review of original marking to ensure correct mark schemes were applied correctly and also includes checks that all parts of scripts were marked and that the totalling of marks and recording of marks are also correct. written consent of candidates must be obtained (consent via email is acceptable). (Deadline for completion is 15 days after awarding bodies receive request). When the centre does not uphold a Review of Marking/Results (Service 2) request, a candidate may apply via Head of Centre to have an enquiry carried out. If candidate requires this against advice of subject staff, they will be charged. Changes to candidate’s’ results arising from a Review of Marking (Service 2) cannot lead to a subsequent late request for Review of Moderation (Service 3).
- Review of Moderation Review (Service 3) A Moderation Review is the review of the original moderation to ensure the assessment criteria has been fairly, reliably and consistently applied; it is NOT a remoderation of candidates’ work (please refer to current JCQ Post Results Booklet or relevant awarding bodies instructions). A Moderation Review will be undertaken on original sample of candidates’ work only and cannot be for the work of individual candidates or for the work of candidates not in original sample (including work carried forward to a subsequent exam series). All work submitted for a Moderation of Review must be sent within 3 working days and must have been kept under secure conditions and not have been returned to candidates. Candidate consent is not required for a moderation review as candidates’ marks may be lowered but their published subject grades will not be lowered in the series concerned, however a lowered mark can be carried forward to future certification. (Deadline for completion is up to 35 days after moderator receives original sample of work from centre).
- Access to Scripts (ATS) (refer to JCQ Post Results Booklet for specific dates) After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of papers within one day for priority original copies (GCE only). Copies of scripts to support Reviews of Marking (Service 2) can be requested (the deadline for requests will be 7 days after candidates’ publication of results and copies will be provided to centres by beginning September for summer results (see JCQ Post Results Booklet). Copies of scripts can be requested for teaching and learning purpose (the deadline for these requests will be end of September (see JCQ Post Results Booklet for date). Applications for ATS must be made online via the awarding bodies extranet sites by the exams officer/manager and will be provided for GCSE (GCE AS and A Level) papers: If a copy of the marked script (ATS) has been requested; the examiner marks & annotations will be shown, therefore then a Service 2 request must be put forward at same time as ATS; a later request after a Service 2 request would not be allowed.
